Who Needs Christmas?

Who needs Christmas? Seriously, who needs it? Well, as it turns out, maybe we all do. In this series, we'll discover just how important the Christmas story really is—for all of us.

Week 1

Bottom Line: The entire world needs Christmas.

The Christmas story is full of remarkable moments. But did you know that the Christmas story really kicked off about 2,000 years before the birth of Jesus? This week, we'll take a look at what happened in those years—the promises, trials, and victories—that all pointed to one thing: The world needed Christmas.

Week 2

Bottom Line: God needed Christmas to demonstrate His love.

We all tend to think of Christmas as a holiday that's about God, but not really for God. After all, Christmas is really for us, right? The truth is, the first Christmas wasn't just for people—it was for God as well. This week, we'll discover that not only did the world need Christmas to understand God's love, but God needed it, too.

Week 3

Bottom Line: Christmas is for people who need freedom.

Have you ever felt like something had total and complete control over your life? Believe it or not, that's what sin can do. It can have incredible power over you, and before the birth of Jesus, it seemed nearly impossible to escape. But Christmas changed that. This week, we'll see that we all need Christmas to be set free.
